Suggestion: Go to a real live Google search, try "damn courthouse criminals", separate words, without quotes, and watch Google offer an "autocomplete" - BEFORE typing is finished.

The Jackpot: Try "plea to the jurisdiction and sanity", "presiding pumpkin", "judge poopi", "judge abcde", "judge paul banner", with and without quotes, maybe with "van zandt" or "294th" thrown in.

OR: Start typing, no quotes, courthouse criminals, (plural), and watch it put a DAMN in front of it!

And the most amazing: Just type in "$62,885 $125,770" - else just one, with a 294th thrown in, like "62,885 294th" with and without the commas - no quotes needed - the TWO unlawful court sanctions (fines) against me - for having made a counter-claim when I was sued - a First Amendment Right. And give a big THANKS to Google.

EVEN MORE AMAZING: Seems to work entering ONLY the two BARE numbers, 62885 and 125770, no dollar sign, no comma, no quotes needed! I have NOT tried it with Bing, Yahoo, or other search engines.
